

Hundreds Killed at Halifax, City Is Burning, Munition Ship Explodes When Hit by Steamer

BOTH SHIPS SINK AND CREWS PERISH; CITY SET ON FIRE

Appalling Catastrophe Reported in Meagre
Dispatches Before Wires Go Out

(International News Service.)

Truro Nova Scotia, Dec. 6.—The northwestern portion of Halifax is on fire. Forty or fifty persons are reported killed; many persons are injured and hundreds of buildings are completely destroyed or damaged by the explosion of a munition ship which was rammed in the Halifax harbor today. All telegraph and cable wires are down and reports are fragmentary. Doctors, nurses and firemen are being rushed to Halifax from every town within a radius of eighty miles. Although conflicting reports have been received, the fact has been established that the explosion resulted when an American ammunition steamer which was leaving port for overseas was rammed amidship by an incoming steamer. In the terrific explosion which followed, both ships sank with their dead or dying crews.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Following alarming reports concerning the extent of the disaster at Halifax, some reports putting the death list high in the hundreds, the navy made desperate efforts today to secure from the fleet some definite word of the explosion. Wireless communication has been interrupted.

Moncton, N. B., Dec. 6.—The death toll in today's disaster at Halifax will reach 400, according to unconfirmed advices received here this afternoon. The same advices reported that more than 1,000 persons were injured and that the property damage will run into the millions.

So far as could be learned here this afternoon, the New Amsterdam, of the Holland-American line, was the only steamship in Halifax harbor at the time of the explosion.

(International News Service.)

New York, Dec. 6.—All reports reaching here this afternoon indicate that heavy loss of life has occurred at Halifax as the result of a collision between an American munition steamer and another vessel in the harbor. Communication has been interrupted. Scores of warehouses along the waterfront are reported demolished and it is feared scores of persons were buried beneath the debris. Cities and towns 100 miles from Halifax report hearing the blast. Just before telegraphic communication went out an operator at Halifax wired that the loss of life was appalling.

WAR RESOLUTION HEARD BY HOUSE TOMORROW NOON

(International News Service.)

Washington, Dec. 6.—Immediately upon the convening of the House this afternoon, Chairman Flood of the house committee on foreign affairs, presented the report of his committee's resolution for war against Austro-Hungary. Unanimous consent was granted for consideration of the resolution at noon tomorrow.

(International News Service.)

Washington, Dec. 6.—Representative Miller, republican, of Minnesota, who yesterday urged the committee on foreign relations to include Turkey and Bulgaria in the declaration of war against Austria, made an impassioned plea in the house this afternoon for immediate hostilities against these nations.

Roumania Sticks is Word Sent Wilson

(International News Service.)

A Pacific Port, Dec. 6.—Assurances from King Ferdinand of Roumania that his country will never make a separate peace with Germany, is the message being carried to President Wilson today by the American Red Cross mission sent to Roumania.

300 Americans in Cambrai Fighting

(International News Service.)

Washington, Dec. 3.—Three hundred American engineers were in the cording to information received today from France. American officers are very proud of the conduct of the men. The engineers fought like demons and when the Germans had been driven back they were ordered to dig trenches under the hot fire of the German cannon. They sprang to their task with American rag-time songs on their lips.

Albany Drug Company Will Open For Business in Near Future

Will Occupy Part of Patterson Merchantile Company Building at Corner Moulton and Second Avenue

The Albany Drug Company, formed by local business men, will open for business about December 15 in a part of the Patterson Merchantile Company building, Second avenue and Moulton street, it was announced today. In order to make room for the new enterprise, the Patterson Merchantile Company will vacate a part of the building they now occupy, and an entrance will be cut at the Moulton street and Second avenue corner.

The new pharmacy will be in charge of T. A. Caddell, a registered pharmacist. Mr. Caddell has been in the drug business for many years, and since coming to Albany some time ago has made many friends. The drug company has already ordered handsome furniture and fixtures, including a marble soda fountain, and will be ready for business as soon as these arrive and can be installed. It is expected that the formal opening will take place about December 15. A full line of toilette goods, drug sundries, patent medicines and other articles will be carried in stock. The fixtures will be of quartered oak. The interior of the building is to be remodeled and beautified, and when these improvements are made it will be ideally adapted to drug purposes. The location is one of the best in Albany. Owing to the rapidly increasing country trade, which centers on Moulton street, the pharmacy expects to have a large patronage from this source alone.

Mr. E. W. Phillips "Kicks in" On Morgan County Boys' Tobacco Fund

E. W. Phillips, well known citizen of Albany, today "kicked in" on the Morgan County Boys' Tobacco Fund. Mr. Phillips contributed $1.00 to this cause.

It is hoped that the fund can be brought up to a total of $100 in the next few days, and it will then be turned over to H. R. Thompson, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and be forwarded to the "Morgan County Boys." Try "kicking in" as a stimulant to that Christmas feeling of human kindness.

RUSS REPORTED TO HAVE DECLINED GERMAN TERMS

COUNTER TERMS SAID TO HAVE BEEN LAID DOWN BY THE BOLSHEVIKI LEADERS.

(International News Service.)

Copenhagen, Dec. 6.—Germany's negotiations for an extended armistice on the eastern front as a preliminary to a separate peace with Russia and Roumania are meeting with obstacles.

Reports from Berlin today stated that the Russians have not only refused to accept the German terms, but have laid down counter terms which are not acceptable to the German officials.

(A temporary truce is already under way on parts of the eastern front, according to an official announcement made by the German war office.)

It is understood that the Germans are insisting upon terms which may be summed up as follows: Austro-German forces to retain their present positions, but the Russians and Roumanians are to retire behind their defensive lines; they are to deliver up a certain part of their arms; Austro-German prisoners in Russia are to be released, but Russian prisoners in Germany are to be allowed to remain as laborers and are to be given a reasonable wage.

(International News Service.)

Stockholm, Dec. 6.—Even if a general armistice is considered between Russia and the central powers, the Russian government will not permit Austro-Hungarian troops to be removed from the eastern to other zones of fighting, according to a dispatch from Petrograd quoting Foreign Minister Trotsky. He denied that Russia would take advantage of her allies.

TWO-STORY BRICK IS BEING ERECTED

STROTHER & SMITHERS BUILDING ON LOT ADJOINING ALBANY
POSTOFFICE.

Work has begun on a new two-story brick business house to be erected by Strother & Smithers, proprietors of the Twin City Bread Co. on the vacant lot between the Albany postoffice and the Cook Furniture Company building on upper Second avenue. The contract was let to Mr. McCord, and it is expected that the building will be ready for occupancy early in February. The lower floor of the building will be occupied as a grocery store by A. C. Joiner, while the upper floor will consist of two 5-room apartments which have already been leased.

The lot is 25 feet in width and fronts on Second avenue. It is owned by Strother & Smithers, who recently purchased the Thompson-Petty building adjoining. The completion of the new building will give a 75-foot frontage to the three business houses, the other two being at present occupied by the postoffice and A. F. Harris.

ALBANY RED CROSS.

The executive committee of the Albany Red Cross chapter is hereby called to meet at the Y. M. C. A. Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

WILSON'S WISHES TO CONTROL ACTION ON RAIL PROBLEM

(International News Service.)

Washington, Dec. 6.—Congressional action on the revolutionary plan to deal with the railroad situation will come early with the new year. This was certain today, following impromptu conferences between railroad officials and leading senators and representatives.

As in every war move to date the wishes of the president will control. The interstate commerce committee of both branches of congress will call upon him at an early date. Then the entire railway situation will be threshed out.

The situation admittedly is complex and it will be probably several days before sentiment crystallizes to allow the drafting of a comprehensive bill. As a matter of fact there is a very wide divergence of opinion as to what must be done.

WAR BUREAUS STRONG FOR GOVERNMENT CONTROL

(International News Service.)

Washington, Dec. 6.—The directing heads of all the nation's war bureaus here today were in the fullest accord that the president must take over the roads. They were not divided in opinion, as is the congress. They insist that the statistics they have gathered prove conclusively that complete mobilization of the industrial and military resources of the country cannot be realized until the railroads are federalized. All agree that drastic action must be taken unless the interest of all the people is to suffer.

Birmingham Men Brought Measles To Camp Pike, Ark.

Little Rock, Dec. 6.—Maj. Gen. William J. Gorgas, surgeon general of the U. S. army, who made a tour of inspection of Camp Pike today, said that the epidemic of measles here is due to the fact that a large percentage of the men are from sparsely settled districts, which reduced the likelihood of contracting the disease in childhood.

Allied Naval Drive In Adriatic Planned

(International News Service.)

Paris, Dec. 6.—An allied naval drive in the Adriatic sea is under contemplation, it was learned here today. Belief was expressed that the naval council of war will give consideration to this project, and that a great offensive will be directed against Pola, the Austro-Hungarian base.

Local Sailor Lad Praises Red Cross

A local sailor boy, one who is well known and has many friends in both Albany and Decatur, in a letter today to relatives here praises the Red Cross.

In this connection he says: "We have received our consignment of Red Cross winter clothing and the entire crew is highly elated, officers and all. The Red Cross is doing a great work for the soldiers and sailors."

ANCIENT STATUTE INVOKED

UNDER RECENT DECISION OF THE COURT OF APPEALS, EVEN THE

HIBITED. NO MORE MEAT AND

Notice to Merchants and Public
Markets:

According to sections 7814 and 7819 of the criminal code of Alabama, it is unlawful to keep open doors on Sunday, and I am commanded to see that this law is enforced. This is, therefore, that each and every person concerned shall take notice that after this date I shall expect each and every person to be governed accordingly, for I shall make an investigation of every case of such violation that may come to my knowledge.

JAMES A. FORMAN,
Sheriff Morgan County, Ala.

The foregoing notice, issued today by Sheriff James A. Forman, may mean the beginning of an era of "blue law" enforcement in Morgan county.

The issuance of the notice followed a visit to the sheriff's office of a committee from the Pastors' Union of Albany and Decatur, the members of the committee being Dr. J. C. Persinger, Dr. W. N. Sholl, Dr. Jesse A. Cook, and Dr. W. E. Morris, presiding elder of the Decatur district. It is not known whether the committee insisted upon a rigid compliance with the Sunday laws, as interpreted by a recent decision of the court of appeals, which held that it is a violation of law even for drug stores to keep their doors open on the Sabbath, or whether they merely insisted upon the closing of fruit stands, meat markets and some mercantile establishments that have been doing a thriving business. The committee also called on Circuit Solicitor Chas. H. Eyster.

If the Sunday laws are rigidly enforced, after the provisions of an ancient statute recently unearthed, it is possible that the drug stores will even be prohibited from dispensing drugs on Sunday, as the statute makes it unlawful for them to "keep their doors open" on Sunday. It may also mean the closing of filling stations where gasoline is kept for sale and may even prevent the operation of street cars on Sunday. Meat markets and ice wagons also come under the ban.

The enforcement of the Sunday laws, in the last analysis, will rest with the grand jury, which has power to return true bills against all persons who may be charged with a violation of the Sunday laws.

DESPERATE FIGHTING REPORTED IN ITALY

Germans Make Vicious Assaults With Large Numbers of Troops. British Advance at Cambrai

(International News Service.)

London, Dec. 6.—A fleet of German airplanes raided the southeastern coast and London today. There were between 20 and 30 machines in the attacking squadron, but only 5 or 6 of them succeeded in fighting their way past the British air patrols to this city. Two of the German airplanes were shot down. An official statement this afternoon said that bombs were dropped in Kent and Essex. The machine which penetrated the London defenses dropped bombs upon this city, but the damage to property and the casualties are believed to be slight. The Germans adopted new tactics of attacking in the morning instead of at night, as they have done in the past.

(International News Service.)

Washington, Dec. 6.—"When the time to strike comes, the invaders will find the Italian army and the allies ready to keep intact the positions along the Piave and keep the Austro-Germans from reaping the gains they expected after their victory on the Isonzo." The Italian war minister made this statement in an official communication to Washington today.

(International News Service.)

London, Dec. 6.—On the southern edge of the Cambrai salient the British extended their gains during the night, but there were no operations of great importance, the war office announced at noon.

In the sector of Noyelles and Bourlon, on the northern side of the salient, the British withdrew slightly towards the southwest to escape the enfilading fire from German artillery.

GERMANS DRIVE HARD AGAINST ITALIAN LINES.

(International News Service.)

Rome, Dec. 6.—The crucial test of the most powerful enemy drive on the Italian front may be forthcoming today, according to early reports received from the Asiago plateau and Verona. With characteristic disregard for life, with thousands of fresh troops and with increased artillery fire the enemy has begun the most vicious offensive of the fighting in Italy. The enemy is hurling its every ounce of strength in the present attack. Two determined and powerful drives on Melette were repulsed with frightful losses to the enemy. One attack resulted in the capture of many enemy prisoners.

Vink Moseley will entertain with a dance at the Fish Pond Friday evening, December 8, in compliment to Rube Robinson, who will soon be called to the colors.

Sergeant Steve Kelley Was First Decatur Boy to Reach France

Volunteered For Military Service at First Hint of War.
Still Fond of His Old Home Town

The first son of Decatur to reach France was in all probability Stephen Louis Kelley—"Sergeant" Kelley now, if you please—who volunteered at the first hint of war and has been two years in the army. Sergeant Kelley's father met death in an accident at the ice plant some years ago, and the boy was adopted by M. J. Cooper, now at Atlanta, but whose home is at St. Louis.

News of the activities of the young non-commissioned officer has reached here through a communication to the Daily, forwarded by a friend, in which the former Decatur boy gives his address and asks that some of his old chums here write to him. "I know that these boys can fight from the rock battles that I have had with them, and I appeal to them to volunteer for God's country—and be men," he says.

The address is "Sergt Stephen L. Kelley, Battery E, Fifth Field Artillery, via New York, American Expeditionary Forces in France."

Steve Kelley spent his early manhood in St. Louis, where he was a theatrical agent with a profitable business. When Mexico became rebellious, he volunteered for service as a private and has been promoted to sergeant, the highest rank that his superior officers could give him. He has further shown his patriotism by purchasing a block of Liberty Bonds and says he will buy more, so that Uncle Sam can settle with him after the war is over.

CONSERVATION OF COAL
AN ABSOLUTE NECESSITY.

That the conservation of coal is a public necessity and a private duty is indicated not only by the warnings sounded by the fuel administration, but by the fact that right here at home the supply is so limited as to constitute almost a coal famine. During the present week, some of the local dealers have scraped the bottom of their coal bins and have filled even meagre orders with difficulty.

S. P. Kennedy, the state fuel administrator, has issued an address in which he appeals to coal consumers to exercise the utmost economy in the use of this very necessary commodity. He insists that fires should not be burned in bed rooms that are occupied but little; that no fires at all should be kindled on warm days, and that in districts where wood is plentiful and obtainable no coal should be burned.

The advice which Mr. Kennedy gives should be heeded. If it is not, even with present restrictions of the amount of coal that can be purchased at one time, America is likely to be hampered in its effort to win the war. Patriotism as well as economy should be allowed to govern.

EFFECTIVE CHRISTMAS
ADVERTISING.

Spoke and Moebes and J. W. Thornton have in this issue what is universally acknowledged to be the most effective form of holiday advertising.

At this time hundreds of people are carrying lists of presents to be given to relatives and friends. Men are always at a loss what to give the opposite sex and women especially welcome suggestions along the line of suitable presents for men.

The best way to solve the gift problem is to clip the ads from this paper containing lists of presents and keep same for daily reference. Other ads of a similar nature will soon appear. You will before long have suggestions enough to cover your entire list.

A GOVERNMENTAL NIGHTMARE.

In June, in one of the wholesale elections at Petrograd, when everybody, men and women, without restrictions, voted, the Bolsheviks carried the election by a vote which was approximately four to one over the combined votes of the other parties. It was said then, as it is said now, that the citadel of the Bolsheviks

Corn Pain
Stopped Quick

Corns Lift Right Off With "Gets-It"

Blessed relief from corn pains is simple as A B C with "Gets-It". When you've been limping around for days trying to get away from a heart-drilling corn or bumpy callus, and everything you've tried has only made it worse, and then you put some "Gets-It" on and the pain goes right away, and the corn peels right off like a banana skin. Isn't it a grand and heavenly feeling?

"Gets-It" has revolutionized the corn history of the world. Millions use it and it never fails. Ladies wear smaller shoes and have pain-free feet. We old fellows and young fellows forget our toes and feel frisky as colts. Everybody with a corn or callus needs "Gets-It". We will all walk about and enjoy ourselves as we did without corns. Get a bottle today from your druggist, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. 25c is all you need to pay.

Sold in Albany and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Prentiss-Dillehay Drug Co., and S. M. Thompson.

Strength was in Petrograd.

If that is true, the strength of the Bolsheviks in Petrograd is rapidly waning, for in the election held Monday and Tuesday in Petrograd by the same electorate the vote was 327,000 against the Bolsheviks and 273,000 for the anarchists. The Bolsheviks, however, were favored by a divided opposition, as the constitutional democrats polled 211,000 votes and the social revolutionists received 118,000.

The election had only one significance—the Bolsheviks are rapidly losing their deluded followers, even in Petrograd. Again, the vote reveals the fact that the Bolsheviks are holding their brief tenure of power on a minority vote polled in the city in which they are strongest. They are holding this power temporarily, because they have corrupted the garrison at Petrograd, and because with a cynical selfishness, never displayed even by the Czar, they are using the ent will re-enter the theatrical business after the war, the former in charge of their New York office, while Mr. Cooper will be in charge of the St. Louis office.

Sergeant Kelley says that he will visit Decatur as soon as he returns to the good old U. S. A. and there may be with him as a life time partner a former Decatur girl. She and Steve were school mates in the days gone by. He has made his foster parent promise to make the trip with him. Steve is now five feet nine and one-half inches tall, weighs 190 pounds; has that perfect military carriage that is so popular just at this time.

He is very proud of his old home town, and Decatur should be proud of Sergeant Kelley, as he was her first son to enter France, no doubt.

troops to overawe the populace.

In the meanwhile the intelligent and order loving people of Russia, particularly those who live in the south, are quietly and energetically working to establish a government which will not be a disgrace to Russia, which will oppose a separate peace and which will throw the anarchists out of power. The representatives of this element in Washington said Sunday: "Russia will never quit the war until the allies are victorious. The people who have the welfare of the country at heart will never submit to the Bolsheviks and as soon as they see an opportunity they will overthrow them."—Montgomery Advertiser.

PLAYING THE MAN'S PART.

Whatever the surgeons may have done to Carl Hoblitzel to make him fit for service with the colors, it is a matter of record that he had been rejected by the army physicians before he underwent the operation. This superb first baseman of the Red Sox not himself minded to help win Uncle Sam's battles when he might have stayed unmended and stayed at home. He might have continued to fight Boston's battles on the diamond, stopping all perfectly red-hot grounders and line drives in the near garden that came his way. But he saw over the top of things. He followed the gleam, which in this instance happened to be his patriotic duty.—Birmingham News.

popular bookkeeper for Mr. Leo M.
Warten.

Dr. Hudson, pastor of the Baptist church, accompanied by his intimate friends, had the solemn service said that united their destinies for weal or woe for life.

Immediately after the marriage they left for Huntsville, where they spent a day returning to Athens.

Mr. Chandler is a young man of fine character. He is industrious and frugal, and has all the qualities that make for good citizenship. He is popular with the people of his home town and of the county, and is perhaps as well known as any young man of his years in this county and has the happy faculty of making friends and retaining them. He has been for years connected with the drug trade in this place, and every feature of it is well known to him, and he is the right hand man of the manager and owner of the Limestone Drug Company.

Mrs. Chandler came to Athens a few years ago from Albany, where her parents and sister reside. She came as the bookkeeper of Mr. Leo Warten, and by her lady-like manners and charming personality, she has made a wide circle of friends who admire her for her many qualities of charming womanhood. She has given into the care and keeping her happiness and future to a young man as worthy of her as a man can be.

They are now at home to their friends in Athens and are receiving the hearty congratulations of many friends.

The Courier joins in the hearty felicitations.—Alabama Courier.

Miss Bessie Davis has been given a most lucrative government position under the direction of the food conservation bureau. This is pleasing news to her many friends in Athens.

Spend Your Money Freely

Conserve Everything Else

This advice, coming from the source it does, makes it doubly important.

Spend Money Freely

does not mean to spend it foolishly. Spend it for the good of others as well as yourself and conserve the things you spend it for. At this season spending become a habit with nearly everyone. The most conservative loosen up as a rule and spend. Now, in spending, remember the importance in this case of spending for things that will count later on. Every member of the family must be clothed and shod.

What little child or older person would not appreciate a new shoe or warm garment of some kind for the present? Keep this in mind and it will lessen your anxiety later on. Buy shoes, buy clothing of all kinds. Buy them from one source and be assured of the quality.

Insurance of Soldiers and Sailors

Washington, Dec. 6.—The act which provides for government life insurance for soldiers and sailors has now been in operation a little more than a month. The secretary of the treasury announced on November 17 that up to that date $4,162 applications under the new law had been received, representing insurance in the sum of $552,093,000. From four to six thousand applications are received each day at the treasury department, the amount of insurance applied for sometimes reaching a total of fifty million dollars in a single day.

The law provides that soldiers, sailors, marines and nurses in active service may obtain from the government life insurance in amounts not exceeding $10,000 at premium rates ranging from 65 cents a month at the age of 21 years, to $120 a month at the age of 51 years, for each $1,000 of insurance.

One of the primary objects of this law is to lessen the tremendous burden of pensions which has followed as a consequence of all American wars. It is evident that the administration of this new branch of government work is big business in itself. But this is only one of many governmental activities incident to the war which are adding great numbers of clerks, stenographers and other servants to Uncle Sam's payroll. Literally thousands of stenographers and typewriters have been appointed in Washington during the past few months and thousands more are to be appointed as soon as they are available. The United States civil service commission is holding examinations for these positions weekly throughout the country. Secretaries of local boards of civil service examiners at the postoffices in all cities are furnishing detailed information.

Cupid Makes a Centershot While Bell Punctures Plans

While Lieutenant Bell was practicing bayonet thrusts at Hun figures up at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, Dan Cupid was on the job making heart thrusts with his little darts and shafts, and he made a center-shot. When Lieutenant Bell returned to Camp Eagle Pass on Tuesday after having completed a course at the infantry school of arms in which he specialized in bayoneting, he brought with him a winsome little bride. It was a match which had its beginning at the former home of the happy pair in Albany, Alabama, and dates back to their school days, which was not so very many years ago. So when the young lieutenant arrived at Fort Sill he found there awaiting him his little sweetheart who traveled all the way across Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas up into Oklahoma to give her answer to the question which had previously been proposed. Without ceremony they proceeded to the Methodist church, where the marriage vows were read on Nov. 10, which made Miss Nada Vohlers and First Lieutenant Virgil Bell of the Third Infantry, one. They are now comfortably located at the C. Ford home on Jackson street, and a pretty little niche in the Eagle Pass society circle awaits its fair occupant—Eagle Pass News-Guide.

AMUSEMENTS

EXTRA! EXTRA! 10¢ SPIES
OPERATING IN AMERICA!

Blowing Up of Subways and Brooklyn Bridges Prevented by Sacrifice of Brave American. Do You Know Your Neighbor?—Masonic Theatre Saturday.

It's the unusual that cuts the great big figure. And William Fox has attained it in "The Spy," the timely, sensational photo-drama exposing the operations of Germany's secret police in the United States.

Do you know your neighbor? No, not always. Do you know that the Prussians have 10,000 foreign emissaries lurking and scheming in this country? Every day the newspapers have stories to the effect that important state secrets, information of military movements and operations of the naval vessels reach the head of Germany's secret police in Berlin. Are you sure that the man who lives next door or the man who rides down to the office with you in the morning is not one of the Kaiser's paid hirelings?—Are you certain he is not one of those spies who transmit this important information to the capital of Germany?

Do you know that Prussia's agents at one time planned to blow up the Brooklyn and other bridges, the Hudson tubes, the subways and the water supply, thereby cutting New York off from other parts of the country?

Fortunately, these facts were discovered in time. The "Spirit of '76" came to the fore, and one of the society's young idlers—an American to the core—made sacrifices for his country, making it possible for President Wilson to get in his possession a list of spies operating in the United States—many of whom were prominent socially.

All this is told in pictures by William Fox in one of the greatest war pictures of the day. And there is not a battle scene in it. "The Spy" is a photo-drama, and Dustin Farnum, as Mark Quaintance, the rich and petted society man, is the hero—who braved the horrors of Berlin's prisons—the man who served his country in its time of need.

See "The Spy." And after you have witnessed this greatest modern picture of the great war, you will ask yourself, "Do I know My Neighbor?"

SLEEP Like a Baby

How often you wake up in the morning, feeling as if you had not gone to bed! Your sleep does not seem to have rested you or built you up for the work of the day. Indigestion is usually the cause, and that includes lazy liver, clogged up kidneys, constipation and a lot of other symptoms.

M. Flannigan, a Nashville machinist, after describing all these symptoms, tried Vin Hepatica, and no longer suffers from pain in the head and back, but sleeps soundly and wakes up refreshed and fit for work.

Be warned in time and take Vin Hepatica, the great nature remedy and universal system purifier. It's not a purgative, but is made from herbs that give relief to all digestive troubles, gets to the root of the cause, and restores the patient to health so that he or she enjoys the peaceful slumber of a baby.

Come and get a bottle upon our recommendation.

A bank is usually what the men back of it make it. Its strength depends largely upon their experience, judgment and responsibility: its growth upon the time, thought and effort they devote to its interest.

The directors of this bank are deeply interested in the stability and progress of the institution and keep in constant touch with every detail of its affairs.

There is no better proof of the splendid results of such able direction than the steady development of this institution.
